ATTENTION MOTORCYCLE RIDERS: Do you want another avenue for Masonic fellowship and charity? Do you want to be able to combine your enthusiasm for Motorcycle riding with your love of the Fraternity? There is currently a group looking for more brethren interested in forming a Columbus chapter of the Widow's Sons Masonic Riders Association. For more information on the Indiana Grand Chapter, visit the Grand Chapter website at <http://www.widowssons.com/indiana> for all of the Chapters currently in Indiana and a little bit more about who and what they do. The Widow's Sons are not a Motorcycle Gang but are instead focused on increasing fellowship among Master Masons as well as promoting the charity of providing assistance to the widows and orphans of Master Masons. If you are interested in joining a new Columbus chapter of the Widow's Sons then please call or email Matt Simmons.

Brotherly love, relief, truth, temperance, fortitude, prudence, justice these are far more potent to human development, to human relations, to human life, than are the rules of science. It is simply a question of physical or spiritual values. -L. L. Williams

Unless we are better husbands, fathers, sons, or brother, we aren't following the teachings or living the obligations of Freemasonry. From the home, life broadens into relationships of the community in which we live. We should expect to find Masons in the forefront of every worthwhile community activity. -Unknown
